THE ALLIES' TERMS.

REPLY TO PRESIDENT WILSON'S NOTE.

LONDON, Jan. 11.

The Allied Reply to President Wilson's Note after supporting the proposal to create a League of Nations to assure universal peace and justice, expresses the view that it is impossible at present to obtain a peace which would not only secure the reparation, restitution and guarantees, due through the Central Empires being guilty of an act of aggression, and also to enable the future of the European nations to be established on a sure foundation.
The Allies regret and disclaim responsibility for the losses and suffering entailed on neutrals, as they in nowis provoked the war. They feel it their duty to challenge in the friendliest but the clearest way, the analogy drawn between the opposing belligerents, which directly conflicts with the evidence History had clearly established one fact, namely the calculated policy of aggression whereby Austria and Germany sought to ensure the hegemony of Europe and universal economic domination. By her declaration of war her instant violation of Belgium and Luxemburg, and by her methods of warfare, Germany had proved that she systematically scorned every principle of humanity and respect due to small States.

The Reply proceeds to set out a recalls the horrors marking the invasion of Belgium and Serbia, the atrocious treatment they are undergoing, the massacres of hundreds of thousands of innocent Armenians, the barbarities in Syria, Zepplin raids on open towns, the submerging of liners and shipping, including that of neutrals, the cruel treatment of war prisoners, the judicial murders of Miss Cavell and Captain Fryatt, the deportation and enslavement of civil populations, etc.

Such a catalogue of crimes, it says, explains the Allied protest at the analogy.

The Allies find no difficulty in meeting President Wilson's request to state their war aims. These can only be formulated in detail with all just compensations and indemnities for losses when the moment for negotiation arrives, but it is well-known that they include primarily and necessarily the restoration of Belgium, Serbia and Montenegro, the evacuation of the invaded territories of France, Russia and Rumania, the reorganisation of Europe on the basis of the right of all peoples to the enjoyment of full security for free economic development; also upon territorial agreements and international arrangements framed to guarantee land and sea frontiers against attacks; the restitution of the provinces and territories formerly torn from the Allies forcibly or contrary to the wishes of the inhabitants, the liberation of Italians, Slavs, Rumanian Czechs and Slovaks from foreign domination; the liberation of the peoples lying beneath the multitudinous tyranny of the Turks, and the expulsion from Europe of the Ottoman Empire, which has proved itself radically alien to western civilisation.
It states that the Allies' intentions in regard to Poland are shown in the Proclamation just addressed to his armies.

The Allies disclaim any intention to exterminate or politically extinguish the Germanic Powers, though wishing to rescue Europe from the brutal encroachments of Prussian Militarism.
The Reply concludes: The Allies are determined to endure every sacrifice in order to press to a victorious close the conflict on which depends their own safety and prosperity and the very future of civilisation.

"AN IMPRESSIVE AND HISTORIC DOCUMENT."

LONDON, Jan. 12.

The Allies' Reply to President Wilson is described as an impressive and historic document. The papers are of opinion that its courteous and friendly tone, close reasoning, and lofty ideals are bound to be approved by the American people who will contrast this frank avowal of objects with Germany's curt refusal to give President Wilson the information he asked for.

GERMAN NOTE TO NEUTRALS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

Germany has sent a Note to the Neutral Powers relative to the Entente's Reply to the offer of peace.
The form of the reply excludes an answer, but Germany considers it important to express her opinion on the situation to neutrals and declares that there is no reason to discuss the origin of the war, but appeals to the verdict of history.

The Note asserts that Germany made an honest effort towards Peace, but the Allies declined and therefore, they are fully responsible for the continuation of the bloodshed.

THE ULTIMATUM TO GREECE.

THE GREEK REPLY.

ATHENS, Jan. 11.

The Greek reply to the Allies' ultimatum makes all the concessions accompanied by conditions, including the raising of the blockade.

LATER.

The Greek Reply evades the demand for apologies to the Allied Ministers and public salutes to the Allied flags in connection with the events of December 1st. It also ignores the demand for the removal of the officer responsible for the orders given on December 1st.
Furthermore, it does not deal with the release of the arrested Venezuelans in accordance with the spirit of the Allied demand for their immediate liberation.

REPLY CONSIDERED "INSUF- FICIENTLY PRECISE."

LATER.

Reuter announces that the Allies consider the Greek reply insufficiently precise. The Greek Government will be told that the Reply gives pleasure as far as it goes but more definite acquiescence is necessary.
The Allies do not intend to raise the blockade until the full demands are conceded.

The Allies' representatives remain at Athens.

A ZEPPELIN SCARE IN PARIS.

PARIS, Jan. 12.

On reports from the front that enemy Zeppelins and aeroplanes were coming southwards, bugles sounded the alarm and all the lights of Paris were extinguished at 7 in the evening; but the end of the alarm was signalled at 8 o'clock as the Zep-pelins did not appear.

THE ALLIES' REPLY.

THE Reply of the Allied Powers to President Wilson's Note puts the seal on all that has been already uttered in explanation of their refusal to entertain what is so obviously a deceitful and treacherous offer by Germany to end the war. The Reply rightly challenges "in the friendliest but clearest way" the analogy which the President's Note draws between the opposing belligerents.
The Note, it will be remembered, called attention to what it described as the fact that "the objects which the statesmen of the belligerents on both sides have in this war are virtually the same, as stated in general terms to their own people and to the world. Each side desires to make the rights and privileges of weak peoples and small States as secure against aggression or denial in the future as the rights and privileges of the great and powerful States now at war. Each wishes itself to be made secure in the future, along with all other nations and peoples, against the recurrence of wars like this, and against aggression of selfish interference of any kind. Each would be jealous of the formation of any more rival leagues to preserve an uncertain balance of power amidst multiplying suspicions; but each is ready to consider the formation of a league of nations to insure peace and justice throughout the world." The President's complaint was that:
"Never yet have the authoritative spokesmen of either of the belligerents severally avowed the precise objects which would, if attained, satisfy them and their people that the war had been fought out. The world has been left to conjecture what definite results, what actual exchange of guarantees, what political or territorial changes or readjustments, what stage of military success even, would bring the war to an end." So far as the Allies are concerned President Wilson has now been furnished with the more precise information he desires, but so far, there has been no response of this character from the German side.
There is no reason to suppose that Germany is at this moment prepared to concede what the Allies describe as their primary and necessary aims—aims which, however, the Allies are grimly determined to achieve at all costs. Unless, therefore, Germany speedily climbs down all further efforts on the part of the Neutral Powers to bring about peace must be indefinitely postponed.
The American people, and the Neutral Powers of Europe cannot but strongly sympathise with most of the aims the Allies formulate in their Reply to President Wilson's Note and we cannot believe that either of them would dare to press for a Peace which does not guarantee these primary and necessary conditions of permanence.

HONGKONG WAR
CHARITIES FUND.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT.

CHARITIES THE COMMITTEE HAS HELPED.

A meeting of the General Committee of the Hongkong War Charities Fund was held yesterday afternoon in the Council Chamber. H.E. the Governor presided over a large attendance.
The Hon. Mr. E. H. SHARP, K.C., Chairman of the Executive Committee, referring to the minutes of the previous meeting said the only matter which the Executive Committee had to report arising out of the business of the previous meeting was the matter of the celebration of the Red Cross Day. He thought it was quite unnecessary to say anything about that now, for they all knew that the total receipts on that day were something over $41,000 which enabled the Executive Committee, after paying all expenses, with the aid of a trifling sum from the general fund of the Committee, to send home $5,000, which he thought was a very good result of the "Our Day" effort.

Mr. SHARP remarked that the War Charities Committee had now been operating for nearly a year, and he proceeded to mention the principal allocations they had made out of the general fund.

LADIES' WORKING PARTIES.
The cost monthly for materials used by the Ladies' Working Parties in the Colony was something over $3,000.
This cost was steadily increasing, and to what extent it might increase in the future none of them knew. They had been very much helped by the Shipping Companies, which had shipped the work the ladies had done either absolutely free or at very much reduced rates.
He mentioned, for instance, Messrs.
Butterfield and Swire. The various letters of acknowledgment from home and from the front which had been published from time to time in the local newspapers, showed how necessary the articles made by the ladies were, and how much they were appreciated.

"STAR AND GARTER" FUND.

They would remember that Hongkong undertook the provision and equipment of a ward in the new "Star and Garter" hospital and they sent home for that purpose $2,000, which they understood was enough. But it was found to be insufficient. Another $250 were required, and they were sending that amount. This ward was called the "Hongkong Ward," and they had—if they wished to exercise them—rights in that ward, such as giving preference, in its use, to anyone incapacitated who came from Hongkong.

ROYAL FLYING CORPS HOSPITAL.

The next object on the list of those supported was the Royal Flying Corps Hospital. This hospital was doing splendid work and last June they promised to contribute $10,000 a year to this hospital for two purposes, (1) to maintain a Hongkong ward in the existing hospital, and (2) to assist a proposed extension, which the London Committee intended to proceed with at once. A ward in the Hospital was named the "Hongkong Ward." Delays had occurred in connection with the extension, owing to the difficulty of finding suitable premises, and it was thought that, as time was passing and nothing very definite being done, it would be wise to communicate with their representatives on the Committee.
—Mr. Murray Stewart and Dr. J. M.
Atkinson—to the effect that if the extension could not be arranged for within a reasonable time—say, two months—it would be better to divert the money to a more immediately useful object.
That was at the beginning of September and after the two months had expired the proposal came from the London Committee itself that they accept the $200 per month for the ward in the existing hospital and drop the idea of the proposed extension. The existing hospital was doing a very excellent and satisfactory work in its Hongkong Ward and now the Committee here had $10,000 a year not spent on the extension at its disposal for other charities. They had in fact, allocated part of that money to the Prisoners of War Fund, the "Blind Soldiers" and Sailors Fund and other excellent funds of a like character. The Hongkong Jockey Club had earmarked its contribution of $35,000 from the last race

STRAIGHT AT IT.

"There is no use of our 'beating around the bush.' We might as well open with it first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or cold.
There is no reason so far as we can see why you should not do so. This preparation by its remarkable cures has gained a world wide reputation, and people everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. It is for sale by all Chemists and Storekeepers."

meeting for the Royal Flying Corps Hospital and they had consented to the diverting of a portion of the contribution to other objects.

PRISONERS-OF-WAR FUND.

Regarding the Prisoners-of-War Fund —a fund for sending parcels of food to our prisoners-of-war in Germany.—Mr.
Sharp said the committee had left it to Mr. Stewart and Dr. Atkinson to decide the particular organisations through which these parcels would be sent, with a view to avoiding the danger, which they knew had arisen, of sending too many parcels to popular regiments and overlooking the less popular. There was a society in existence, with a British Minister at its head, which was superintending the transmission of these parcels to British prisoners in a very expedient manner. Ninety-nine per cent. of these parcels arrived at their destination and in very good condition.

His Excellency—I may say I am in receipt of a communication to the effect that now the whole of the Funds for assisting prisoners of war are under the control and direction of one organisation.
Mr. Sharp—That was not definitely known. Continuing, he said they had lately allocated $1,000 to this object, making a total of $1,500 at the end of the year.

BLINDED SOLDIERS, AND "SAILORS."

The next object they had assisted was the fund for the soldiers and sailors blinded in the war. There was a general organisation covering the various efforts, but the Executive Committee thought the best of the organisations for the purpose was the St. Dunstan's Hospital founded by Sir Arthur Pearson, who himself was blind, and the work was therefore sympathetically carried on.
The blinded men were taught trades by which they could make their own living. He read a very appreciative letter from Sir Arthur Pearson to the Committee, acknowledging their first donation of $500, and intimating that a permanent inscription referring to Hongkong's generosity had been placed on the wall of the lobby of the hospital.
They had sent another $1,000 to the fund.

OFFICERS' FAMILIES FUND.

The Officers' Families Fund was the next fund they supported. It was doing a very useful and valuable work, and they had sent a further donation of $1,000, making $2,000 for the year.

DRAUGHTS HOSPITAL.

To the Draughts Hospital at Greenwich they had given $500. It was a very old institution founded in the time of George IV, and much enlarged during the war. It took in men, not only from the Navy, but also from the Mercantile Marine—men who were doing good work, dangerous work, in mine-sweeping and mine-laying.
It was in need of funds. Messrs Stewart and Atkinson were making inquiries and the committee had sent $500 in the meantime.

BELGIAN RELIEF.

With regard to Belgian Relief the Executive Committee had allocated $500 for that object and had given discretion to their London representatives to support Belgian Relief organisations in Britain or Belgium as they thought best.

OTHER CHARITIES.

There were other smaller charities which they had supported and recently the General Committee was circulated for permission to send to their London representatives a sum of money which should be used at their discretion amongst smaller charities. It was very difficult here to know about small charities, and correspondence wasted much valuable time and telegraphing was most costly. There was such a society as the Surgical Requisites Society which supplied artificial limbs for soldiers, which whilst not asking for large subscriptions, was glad of small ones. It was to benefit such societies that Mr. Stewart and Dr.
Atkinson had been sent $1,000 to be divided as they thought best.

NEED OF MONTHLY SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The funds in hand up to a few days ago were about $38,000 in Hongkong and $5,000 in England. That large Hongkong balance was mainly due to a series of very excellent theatrical performances got up by the Chinese members of the Committee, which realised nearly $20,000 for which they were very grateful. The Executive Committee felt it right to get rid of that money and they had already allocated it amongst the charities he had already indicated. The result was that after paying a few outstanding bills in connection with the Ladies' Working Parties they were about $15,000 in hand. They were therefore, now in need of more money especially monthly subscriptions. As he was dealing with figures he might mention that the monthly subscriptions at the present time did not amount to their monthly disbursements for the working parties.

The only other thing he had to report was that the Hon. Mr. C. E.
Anton had joined the Committee in place of Mr. David Landale and that Dr. Marriott had consented to serve during the absence on leave of Dr. Harston.

APPEAL BY THE GOVERNOR.

H. E. THE GOVERNOR said; The details given by the Chairman of the Executive Committee constitute striking evidence of the generosity of the community in subscribing to War Charities, but I wish to refer to some faults in the organisation through which we raise subscriptions. Monthly subscriptions are obviously the most desirable source of revenue for they enable subscribers to know just where they are, and give the committees a steady working basis. Chinese prefer other methods and do well with them, but if the Europeans here make monthly subscriptions in accordance with their means, however small, our total income would be very materially increased. At present monthly subscriptions average under $2,500 and are short of even the local working parties' expenditure which is well over $3,000 a month. The monthly subscriptions, etc., should reach a very much larger sum. It cannot be expected that a proper monthly subscription system can be established if people live in fear of constant spasmodic extra calls on their purses and such calls would necessarily have to be reduced to a minimum. They cannot be ruled out entirely; for instance, the "Our Day" effort looks like becoming an annual affair and there must be other small exceptions also. But if the community shows any desire to take up the monthly subscription system it will be the duty of the Committee to endeavour to see that they are protected as far as may be from other calls. There seems no reason why the monthly subscription system should not be extended to the mercantile firms, and indeed it appears that there is every reason why it should be so extended. It might well take the form of a proportion of what they would be prepared to give as donations and of what there is reason to believe they are only waiting an opportunity to give. No better opportunity is likely to occur. We now want an assured monthly income to be put on a more stable basis and therefore, probably, on a larger basis, which would make it unnecessary to make any further special appeals for some time. We now know the charitable organisations which command the sympathy of everybody; to these we have already subscribed and desire to subscribe more largely. We prefer fixed monthly subscriptions but if there are any who do not wish to bind themselves to such they need not promise a definite amount. We shall be glad to receive monthly what they can spare so long as they can spare it. I need hardly add that fixed monthly subscribers can alter or withdraw their subscriptions at any time. There is one other point which I referred to on the day that I first established this Committee, and that is that none of us should allow our charity to interfere with our financial assistance to the Imperial Government by way of investments in the various forms of war loans and War Savings Certificates which are offered to us. These funds have been advertised by the Government weekly for some months past now and the response has been large, I believe; how much one cannot tell without reference to the banks. But what I want to emphasise is that both forms assist the Imperial Government, because by our subscriptions to the various charities we relieve a great deal of the Government's financial responsibilities, and both forms of assistance should have the full support of the community.

TELEGRAMS.

THE WESTERN FRONT.
SUCCESSFUL BRITISH OPERATIONS.

London, Jan. 12.
Field-Marshal Sir Douglas Haig reports: We captured three-quarters of a mile of trench north-east of Beaumont Hamel and 176 prisoners. A counter-attack was broken up. Successful raids have been made eastward of Arrancourt, north-east of Ypres and two in the neighbourhood of Grandcourt.

FURTHER DETAILS.

London, Jan. 12.
Routier's Correspondent at Headquarters states:—
The fighting on Wednesday and Thursday near Beaumont Hamel was an interesting departure from trench midline. It aimed at the mastery of positions and damaging the morale of the enemy. A respite from the bad weather resulted in depriving the enemy of the observation of a large area of our position.
We captured 300 Bavarian and Prussian prisoners.
Whirlwind bombardments preceded the infantry advances.

THE OPERATIONS IN MESOPOTAMIA.

A BRITISH SUCCESS.

Mesopotamia, Jan. 12.
It is officially announced that we captured on Wednesday the majority of trenches in the loop north-eastward of Kut. Two hundred corpses were found in one communication trench. There were also many elsewhere.

THE WAR LOAN.

A GREAT RUSH.

PRUDENTIAL ASSURANCE CO. APPLIES FOR TWENTY MILLIONS.

London, Jan. 11.
There was a great rush for War Loan on the Bank of England early this morning. Hundreds of thousands of prospectuses were handed out in the first hour.
The Prudential Assurance Company applied for twenty millions sterling.

SPEECH BY ADMIRAL JELlicoe.

London, Jan. 12.
Admiral Sir John Jellicoe has been given the freedom of the Fishmongers' Association in the City.

In a speech, Sir John dwelt on the difficulties of Naval warfare as torpedoing was effective at 10,000 yards beyond which visibility was but, especially in the North Sea. Submarines combined with mines prevented a close blockade; nevertheless the Germans had only once ventured far enough to fight. He called attention to the world-wide activities of the Navy, which comprised 4,000 vessels; and the arduous work of the Home Cruiser Squadron which examined weekly an average of 80 ships in all waters.

The Admiral also paid a tribute to the co-operation of the Mercantile Marine in transporting overseas 7,000,000 men together with guns, munitions and stores. Two thousand five hundred mercantile skippers had been employed.

The submarine menace was greater than ever, and must and will be dealt with.

He appealed to shipbuilding-workers to most energetically replace mercantile losses.

THE FOOD CONTROL IN GREAT BRITAIN.

London, Jan. 12.
Lord Devonport has ordered a larger proportion of flour to be extracted from wheat, or the addition of barley, maize and oats flour. His Lordship has also prohibited the feeding of game with grains, and has fixed maximum prices for sweet potatoes.

DEATH OF COUNT BENKENDORF.

London, Jan. 11.
The death is announced of Count Benkendorf, who has been the Russian Ambassador in London since 1903.

RUSSIAN AND RUMANIAN FRONTS.

London, Jan. 12.
A Russian official report, transmitted by wireless, says:—
The enemy pressed us back a short distance, south of the Oluz River. The Rumanians repulsed an attack west of Monestirka and Kachinal and threw back the enemy two versts southward.

SUCCESSSES IN THE NORTH.

BULGARIAN COMMANDS A RUSSIAN ARMY.

Petrograd, Jan. 12.
The Bulgarian General Dimitroff commands the Russians advancing at Mitau.

Announcements of his capture of 21 heavy guns, eleven field-guns and much stores led to a long and unprecedented demonstration in the streets of Petrograd.

"CHARTERING REGULATIONS."

Similar regulations are being adopted by France and Italy.

Permission of the National authorities of each country will henceforth be necessary before foreign tonnage can be chartered.

GERMAN CASUALTIES.

THE LIST FOR DECEMBER.

London, Jan. 11.
The casualties in the official German lists for December—not necessarily incurred in December—totalled 88,291 of which 15,160 were killed.

A GERMAN FABRICATION.

OFFICIAL REPLY TO FABLE ABOUT THE "NEWCASTLE."

News from Berlin received by the Wireless Press on November 20th through the wireless stations of the German Government contained the following:—

It is reported from Rotterdam that the English cruiser Newcastle struck a mine in the North Sea on November 15, and sank at the entrance to the Firth of Forth while trying to reach her home port. The Newcastle at the time of the disaster was accompanied by two other cruisers. Of the crew of the Newcastle, 27 men are dead and 45 wounded. The total losses of the English Navy, including this loss, as far as can be ascertained have reached 121 ships, with a tonnage of 667,900, not counting the auxiliary cruisers and auxiliary ships.

The Secretary of the Admiralty issued the following reply to the German assertion:— With reference to the statement in German wireless issued to-day (20th) that the British cruiser Newcastle struck a mine on November 15 and sank at the entrance to the Firth of Forth, and that 27 of her crew are dead and 45 wounded, none of H.M. ships was mined or sunk during the week November 12 to November 18 in the North Sea. The whole story, with its circumstantial details, is a fabrication.

To meet the increased cost of living the stipends of Welsh Baptist Ministers are to be raised to a minimum of £130 a year for married men, with 25 in addition for each child under 15.

Since the war began the Western India Turf Club of Bombay and Poona has given 250,000 to war funds.

SCHOOL PRIZE DISTRIBUTIONS.

ELLIS KADOORIE SCHOOL.

The Hon. Mr. Claud Severn, M.A., Colonial Secretary, distributed the Prizes this morning at the Ellis Kadoorie School.
The Headmaster, Mr. R. E. O. Bird, M.A., presented a satisfactory report on the working of the school. It mentioned that attention had been chiefly directed towards colloquial English "as being the first and most natural step towards a sound practical knowledge of the English language," and the Headmaster said he was pleased to be able to state that the general knowledge of English is higher than it was at this time last year.

The maximum enrolment was 460 and the average attendance 392. The Report also dealt with the physical culture work of the school and it incidentally mentioned that over 300 boys from the school had been vaccinated at the Government Civil Hospital. The Report also thanked the Hon. Mr. Lau Chu Pak and Mr. Ho Fook for donations to the Prize Fund and the Sun Co. and Ying Wah for sending prizes.

The Hon. Mr. CLAUD SEVERN congratulated the Headmaster and staff and pupils on the success achieved during the past year. He was glad that Mr. Ellis Kadoorie had been able to be present to hear of the continued success of the school which he had established. Proceeding, he expressed gratification at the attention which was being given to English in the curriculum, as that was one of the most important subjects at the present time. He also referred to the exhibition of drawings and paintings which had been done by the pupils outside of school hours. The exhibits were very creditable indeed, and he intimated that he would offer a prize for competition in landscape painting for next year.

The following were the winners of the principal prizes:—

SCHOLARSHIPS 1915:

Tai Yau Scholarship. (To be held at Queen's College)—Lai Li Him.
Lau Chu Pak Scholarship. (To be held at Queen's College)—Chau Hung Ching.
Chan Kai Ming Scholarship.—Sung Sheng Hin.

SCHOLARSHIPS 1916:

Free Scholarship.—Lau Yek Chi, Tam Fuk Fan, Tang Cheuk Nam, Chan Lam.
Tai Yau Scholarship.—Ho Wa Tam.
Lau Chu Pak Scholarship.—Lo Ka Him.
Ho Kam Tong Scholarship. (Senior)—Lo Cho Lok.
Ho Kam Tong Scholarship. (Junior)—Chan Tin Chan.
Chan Kai Ming Scholarship.—Li Ho Nang.

SAIYINGPUN SCHOOL.

Mr. Ho Kam Tong distributed the prizes at this school this morning. The report of Headmaster (Mr. A. Morris) mentioned the School had been practically full throughout the year, the maximum monthly enrolment being 409 in March and 408 in June. The average attendance was 348.9, an increase of 25.4 on that of 1915. Fees showed an increase of $696.00. Over 200 applied for admission; of these 160 were admitted and the remainder rejected either on account of age, or inability to pass the entrance examination in Chinese.

The work done at the school was described as highly satisfactory. Mr. Ho Kam-tong, who distributed the Prizes in February last, has endowed two Scholarships, each of the value of $30, for Classes 5 & 6, and named the "Ho Kam-tong" and the "Palphs" Scholarships respectively. Mr. Ho Kam-tong subsequently presented the School with a life-size oil painting of himself. The Report specially thanked those who had made donations to the Prize Fund, thus enabling awards to be made for attendance and good conduct, and it was mentioned that 49 boys had made full attendance during the year.

The following were the donors of the special prizes:—Hon. Mr. Lau Chu-pak, Mr. and Mrs. Wong Kam-fuk, Mr. Chan Kai-ming, Mr. Ho Fuk, Mr. Ip Sau-chi, Mr. Lo Cheung-siu, Mr. M.K. Lo, Mr. Ho Wing, Mr. Ho Lu, Mr. Ho Kwong, Mr. Ho Leung, Mr. Li Sin-kam, The Sun Co.

Com. Beekwith R.N., Messrs. A. Lung, were thanked for the loan of flags.

Mr. Ho Kam-tong, after distributing a very large number of Prizes said: "Just twelve months ago I had the honour of giving away the prizes here, and to-day I am performing the same function with, if possible, greater pleasure, for I come among you as an old friend. I have listened with keen interest to the report of the Headmaster, which shows that good work was done in the past year. I congratulate both masters and boys upon the satisfactory results achieved. I understand that several applicants for admission were rejected last year owing to their inability to pass the entrance examination in Chinese. I am glad that this essential qualification has been insisted upon, and hope that the rule will not be relaxed. Upon the necessity for Chinese boys to have a good knowledge of the Chinese language I dealt at some length when I was last with you; and I cannot usefully add anything beyond that which seemed rather weak, but papers are set and corrected with the boys by the Headmaster. Reading in the Upper Classes is good. Mr. Bishop Sir, that an English Speaking Association has been formed. Chinese boys studying English are generally shy of speaking that language, with the result that after they have left school they are unable to converse in that tongue with fluency. At a meeting of the Legislative Council held in about October last, the Hon. Mr. Lau Chu-pak expressed the opinion that Chinese boys learning English now-a-days do not, as a rule, write and speak the language so well as students of a decade or two ago; and he suggested that this condition must have been brought about by too many subjects being crammed into the heads of present-day students before they have had a proper grounding in the fundamental elements of the language. I cordially endorse these views, and I hope that the competent authorities will seriously look into this matter. Now, I will say a few words to the scholars. Boys, your Headmaster informs me that some of you have not been regular and punctual in your attendance. I cannot too strongly impress upon you the absolute necessity for attending school regularly and with punctuality. A school is like a machine, with the teaching staff and the scholars forming its component parts. If one part, however small, does not perform its allotted task, it impedes the smooth working of the whole. Besides, time is valuable, especially to those who are endeavouring to acquire knowledge to fit themselves for the business of life. As a Chinese proverb says: "Vain regrets in old age do not bring back time lost in younger days." Take, therefore, good care of your time, and time will take good care of you. There is another matter on which I wish to say a few words. It has been brought to my notice that some boys evince absolutely no interest in their school as soon as they leave it; they do not even take notice of their old masters in the street. The one is possibly due to the absence of a feeling of esprit de corps among the scholars; for the other there is positively no excuse. I do not think much of a man, however brilliant his parts, if he forgets the school which gave him his education; and I think still less of him who does not pay the respect due to his former teachers. Do you not remember the saying: "When you drink water, think of where it came from." Young men must show respect not only to their teachers but to all their seniors. Speaking generally, I find the present-day young men sadly lacking in manners and in proper respect for their elders. Some regard good manners as being inconsistent with independence. Let me at once disabuse them of such a peculiar notion. Look at the French nation. She is one of the greatest republics in the world, and yet she is noted for her innate politeness and civility. If you want to see your country great, you should begin by cultivating sedulously these qualities—respect for your superiors, kindness to all, and a spirit of esprit de corps. If you have these feelings truly in you, the other good qualities will come naturally to you. I have now a more pleasant subject to talk about. I refer to the Old Boys Division of St. John Ambulance Brigade, formed by former scholars of this school. This is a movement that has my hearty sympathy, for I hold it that in joining the Division a boy will make himself useful to both his home and the State. It was especially gratifying to me to see that this Division was placed second in order of merit at the last Ambulance Competition, losing by only 2 1/2 % of marks to a Platoon formed 15 months before it was. After such solid good work, I feel that the close interest I have hitherto taken in the Division has not been taken in vain, and I sincerely hope that it will win the shield at the next competition. It only remains for me to wish masters and boys a very pleasant holiday.

EAST AFRICAN FORCES.

GENERAL SMUTS' APPRECIATIONS.

The "Nairobi Leader" contains an order by General Smuts conveying his high appreciation of the valuable and arduous work performed since he has commanded in East Africa by troops sent there not only from South Africa but from Great Britain and India in this war of which heroism, self-sacrifice and self-denial are constant features. The force in East Africa, he says, suffer in no way by comparison with forces elsewhere. They have been almost daily in contact with a brave and skillfully led enemy, while enervating tropical diseases are widespread, and few have been fortunate enough to avoid their weakening and depressing effects. In these adverse circumstances, says the General, the response of all ranks has been magnificent and the results of their efforts have far exceeded expectations.

Side by side with this despatch appears an interesting list of decorations which the Emperor of Russia has bestowed on members of General Smuts' force in appreciation of their good work. There are several crosses and numerous gold medals, various classes of the Order of St. George. These are all awards given only for exceptional gallantry, and the highest of them rank with the British V.C. and D.C.M.
